Relax and Enjoy at Paringa Estate

The chefs at Paringa Estate take enormous pride in preparing your menu with you, selecting fresh local produce to ensure only quality dishes are presented to your guests. The staff will offer you and your guests the utmost care & attention. Every special touch & detail to make your day memorable is considered.

Whether your preference is for silver service and a string quartet in the dining room, canapés and guitar on the deck, a buffet and jazz or a stylish picnic amongst the vines, they will create the menu that befits the celebration of your dreams.

If your celebration is a formal à la carte banquet by the fire in the dining room, a cocktail party on the deck or a picnic luncheon amongst the vines at Paringa Estate, it will be planned and created with skill, style and an eye for the details that matter.

They match the wine, food, view and ambience to your style, creating a celebration to be remember, you can then relax & enjoy your day. Without doubt, Paringa Estate wines will add an unforgettable experience to your celebration.

Prestigious Award for PaperCache

At the recent award night held by the Australian Bridal Industry Academy (ABIA), PaperCache was again voted number one for the sixth year.

This prestigious award for Best Wedding Stationary Supplier in Victoria is a continuing tribute to the creative design team and exceptional customer service at PaperCache.

In a well contested category, PaperCache outscored 28 other nominees to collect the prize. Business owner Janet Druce was thrilled to receive the award and dedicated it to her team of devoted staff.

PaperCache has recently opened a new store in Bay Street Brighton to complement the company's long standing presence in Main Street Mordialloc.
