

Pearl Prestige for the Peninsula

Prestige, elegance, style and charm are some ways to describe Mornington's newest jewellery sensation.

Tiare Black Pearl has established a second base in Main St. Mornington (next to Frank's Bakery and a few doors up from Gloria Jeans). Tiare has been operating as a wholesale & retail supplier of top quality Tahitian cultured pearls and pearl jewellery for the past 4 years in Olinda before finally deciding to come to the Peninsula. Owners, Alan and Winnie Maguire, said "A large proportion of our customers have always come from the Peninsula, & after several years of urging, we decided it was time to come down from the mountain to the sea."

You know you have entered a new world of quality and style from the moment you walk into Tiare Black Pearl. Shell chandeliers, exotic displays and stylish décor house over a thousand Tahitian, Australian South Seas, Phillipine and natural coloured Chinese freshwater pearls. Tahitian cultured pearls in shades of black through champagne grey, aubergine, bronze, dark green, pistachio and gold are sold either loose or matched with 18 carat gold pendants, rings and earrings. Choose your own setting & individual pearl and Alan or Winnie will have it assembled for you while you have your coffee or lunch nearby.

Tiare's pearls are complemented with a wide range of 18 carat gold chains, sterling silver and semi-precious stones, Australian opal, red coral and Lithuanian amber necklaces, bracelets and earrings. Alan and Winnie travel regularly to Tahiti, New Caledonia, Thailand, Hong Kong, Shanghai and Europe to select pearls straight from the farm or new jewellery creations from international jewellery exhibitions.

"With the Next G™ network, I can quickly find what's good for me."

Giaan Rooney,
TV Presenter and retired Olympic Gold Medal Swimmer, Melbourne.

"Now I'm presenting full-time, I travel a lot. Filming "What's Good For You?" is taking me to all parts of the country so it's important to be able to stay in touch. With the amazing coverage I'm getting on the Next G™ mobile I'm trialling for Telstra, that's not a problem. Plus, with Citysearch® Mobile, it's easy to find the best restaurants when I don't know a place too well. And with Yellow® Mobile I can find all my favourite shopping stores when I'm on the move. Having my Next G™ mobile really works for me."

Another reason why more Australians are joining Telstra's Next G™ network.
