

PENINSULA

weddings

Many couples choose to have their wedding locally because of the Peninsula's natural beauty and there is an almost infinite array of unique venues.

Do you prefer a traditional ceremony in a quaint, historic church, a celebration on the beach or a romantic wedding in the vines? Whatever your choice, from small intimate functions to spectacular affairs, you'll find a multitude of options.

Breathtaking and Unforgettable at Morning Star

As one of the most-sought-after event venues on the Mornington Peninsula, Morning Star Estate is a truly magnificent location for your special event.

With breathtaking gardens and beautiful function rooms, your guests will be treated to an event that will live long in their memories.

The award-winning team at Table Matters cater exclusively to Morning Star Estate, and with a reputation as one of Melbourne's premier caterers, Table Matters will make your wedding or function the unforgettable event you've been dreaming of.

Morning Star Estate is a truly magical setting for your special day. The property's gardens and function rooms steeped in history offer unlimited potential for creating the perfect day that both you and your guests will always remember.

From an intimate gathering of 10 to a grand spectacular of 250, your dream wedding can be created at Morning Star Estate. Exchange vows in the Sunken Garden, on the steps of the cascading fountain, or in the beautifully restored Chapel circa 1860. The wedding of your dreams can happen at Morning Star Estate.
