

Beautiful, Elegant, Romantic

...words to describe your wedding day & The Royal Hotel "the Pearl of the Mornington Peninsula."

Classified by the National Trust and faithfully restored to its resplendent original condition, the Royal Hotel offers a blend of relaxed elegance and quality service.

The Victoriana Room is simply breathtaking and able to seat up to 80 guests. Featuring candelabra chandeliers, leadlight feature doors and exquisite antique furnishings, it will take you back in time to when all things were beautiful.

The sunny courtyard is the ideal venue for a seaside ceremony with a coastline of private craggy shores and sandy beaches offering endless opportunities for a creative wedding photographer.

Accommodation is available with rooms featuring brass beds and antique furniture, ensuite facilities and a balcony view of the city skyline and Port Philip Bay that's second to none.

Exclusive Edge at Joie Bridal

Joy Crompton established Joie Bridal and Formal Wear in Mt Eliza seven years ago, offering the latest in bridal fashion from established Australian and International labels.

"Mothers of the bride finds it especially hard to find the right outfit, most styles are too young or too old" says owner Joy Crompton, "that's where our dressmaking service is invaluable."

Joie Bridal's once a year Birthday Sale commences on Monday 3rd of September to Saturday 8th September. This is a genuine sale with genuine reductions and not to be missed if you have a wedding or special occasion coming up. Normally appointments are preferred, especially on a busy Saturday, but during the sale this is not necessary - it's first come - best dressed!

So step into Joie Bridal and you are sure to find the perfect gowns for all your bridal party.

For an exclusive edge on your special day, visit Joy, Lyn or Lesley for outstanding personal and friendly service.

They also offer a large range of bridesmaids gowns, evening wear, school formal, cocktail, deb and mother of the bride outfits with a specialized service for that one-off outfit that no-one else will have.
