

Art Gallery Opens In Somerville

A stunning new gallery featuring the artworks of some of the best local, established and emerging artists - Cheryl Petersen Galleries launched in August.

Contemporary clean interior lines in the exhibition space combined with some of the region's most exciting artists, promises to be a significant addition to the Mornington Peninsula's art scene. Featuring quality artworks at reasonable pricing the gallery is a first for the area.

Opened with an exceptional Launch Group exhibition, Cheryl Petersen Galleries presents an intriguing display of artworks. The new gallery provides an opportunity for local artist Cheryl Petersen to showcase her outstanding contemporary artworks along with renowned artists: Rodney Simmons, Eric Shepard and Bruce Earls together with emerging artists, Rose Knight and Kate Siciliano.

It is anticipated the gallery will also be used as a creative space for artistic workshops and demonstrations. Cheryl Petersen, director of the gallery said, "I would like the gallery to be a dynamic, working space for people from all walks of life to come and share their love and enthusiasm for great art."
