

Experience Luxury at Zan Baci

Mt Eliza village is home to an innovative new store focusing on the bedroom and ensuite. Locals Angela, Trisha and Melodie saw a gap in the market for a manchester retailer and soon emerged Zan Baci - Boutiques for the bedroom.

A stylish space stocking chic bed linens by Retro Home, Amartmento and Elan, all designed here in Melbourne, Zan Baci also carries a range of quality Egyptian cotton towels, high thread count sheet sets and exquisite imported fine linens.

Children are also well catered for with beautiful quilts and cushions, gorgeous embroidered quilt sets from Jellybean Kids and smart gingham sheet sets by The Laundry.

Zan Baci is the sole Peninsula distributor of luxurious sleepwear and loungewear by Sydney designer Deshabille... not your everyday pyjamas and nighties! There are essential oil based products by Durance of France, including pillow perfumes, room sprays, soaps and lotions. Earthy candles hand made in Melbourne by A Little Light, are a stylish addition to any home. You will find sumptuous blankets, quilts and cushions as well as a fresh range of doona cover sets. Just the thing for your spring makeover.

So whether you are looking to add a little luxury to your home or maybe a special gift, great ideas at very affordable prices are now in Mt Eliza Village.

Almost French

Good interior design tastes are born all sorts of ways, from the slow persistent honing of a creative idea to the happy luck of living close to Almost French.

With the spirit of Provence matched with the seaside sophistication of the Hamptons this stylish new store in Dromana is both inviting and affordable.

A blend of antiques and quality reproductions sit alongside art, glassware, cushions and vintage rattan.

Artist and former illustrator, Prue Pittock has a love for fabrics and the finer things in life, deciding to fulfill her passion for interior design with the opening in April of Almost French at 240 Boundary Road, Dromana.
